All plate offerings on Good Friday will be sent to the Episcopal Church for the Good Friday Offering.

Dear People of God,

For more than a century, Episcopalians have supported the Good Friday Offering, which strengthens the ministries of the Episcopal Church in Jerusalem and the Middle East. This year, the need is especially urgent as war continues to devastate the Holy Land. I invite you to join me in making a generous gift at iam.ec/goodfridayoffering.

I am in frequent contact with Archbishop Hosam Naoum, who shares how deeply their communities rely on our help as they care for people of all faiths. Recently, the Episcopal Diocese of New Jersey gave $1 million to support medical and trauma care for children, youth, and families in Gaza. With this year's Good Friday Offering, we hope to build on that extraordinary generosity.

Your gift will support ministries including:

- al-Ahli Arab Hospital in Gaza
- St. George's Church and medical center in Baghdad
 - Christ Church's eye clinic in Yemen
 - All Saints' Episcopal Church in Damascus
 - All Saints' Episcopal Church in Beirut

These ministries continue to offer medical care, education, and humanitarian aid—serving all people without distinction and witnessing to hope in the land where our faith began.

Together, we can help transform despair into hope for God's people in the Middle East.

The Most Rev. Sean Rowe

Presiding Bishop, The Episcopal Church
